

"Angry Inuk"

A very good documentary. I am proud and happy ~~that~~ that it was made because it shows who we are "our culture". It is important because some Inuit losing their culture and forget their culture these days. We can use it and show it to the generation in order the culture still alive in the future. Using animal skin still need to be used since we live <sup>in</sup> up north in cold weather at times.

Sale